

There is an ordinance that requires all residential and commercial properties to have their address clearly marked on their house.