

You should change your smoke detector batteries twice yearly. Every time that you change your clock to or from Daylight Savings Time, you should change your smoke detector batteries too.