

“Right of Way” does not imply property ownership. Right of Ways provides access to the property to construct and or maintain utilities.